10 Ways You Can SHARE KINDNESS ONLINE

Last year, around one in five young people aged 10–15 in England and Wales admitted experiencing online bullying: most commonly being insulted or sworn at, or having hurtful messages sent about them. To someone who's being bullied, the world can seem like a bleak, negative place – but just one kind word can be a ray of hope: a turning point that brightens their day and refreshes their perspective. That's why 'One Kind Word' is the theme of Anti-Bullying Week 2021. We're supporting this year's event by bringing you ten top tips for beating online bullying by replacing it with kindness.

1 PRAISE WHERE IT'S DUE

Sometimes a friend or relative might post online about something they're proud to have achieved: maybe an exam they've passed, a new skill they've learned or a task they've completed. Celebrate their hard work and determination by being kind enough to praise them for it publicly.

2 REACH OUT

It's not always easy to tell what kind of mood someone is in just from what they post online. Simply dropping somebody a message to say 'hi', to ask if they're OK or to tell them that you're thinking of them could totally make their day.

3 RECOMMEND FUN THINGS

If there's something you enjoy doing online – perhaps you play a particular game, or you've found a really cool site – share it with someone you think will enjoy it. Even recommending a film or TV show you think they'll like can bring a little happiness to someone who really needs it.

4 OFFER TO HELP

Sometimes you might see a friend or family member posting a question online or asking for help with something they can't do themselves. Don't just ignore it – if you can help, get in touch. Something that's difficult for them might be no trouble for you!

5 POST POSITIVELY

Lots of people seem to go online purely to complain about things or be negative. Just because you're communicating online (and not face to face) doesn't mean you can't be positive, though! Post about things that make you happy and that you're thankful for. It could brighten someone else's day.

6 SHOW YOUR APPRECIATION

If somebody that you know has done something positive or shown kindness themselves, go online and thank them with a message or a post. Expressing your gratitude costs nothing and showing someone that you appreciate them will really make them feel good.

7 BE UNDERSTANDING

Showing empathy towards others is an act of online kindness which often gets overlooked. If you notice that someone you know is upset, drop them a message. Sometimes people just need someone else to listen to them and understand their situation.

8 SHARE INSPIRATIONAL POSTS

When you see something online that inspires you or makes you feel happy, share it with people you know. A spot-on quotation, a beautiful photo or an uplifting video can lift someone's spirits and help them to feel better about life.

9 THINK BEFORE COMMENTING

Thinking before we act can be just as important as acting in the first place. Taking a second to consider what you're saying in advance could stop you from posting something negative, hurtful or offensive – even if you don't mean to. It's better to post positively or not post at all.

10 LIKE, LOVE AND ENGAGE

If somebody posts something that you like on social media, don't just scroll past – take the time to like it, love it or leave an appreciative comment! Reacting positively to other people's posts might seem like a small gesture but could mean a lot to them.

IMPORTANT SAFEGUARDING INFORMATION

Dear All

Below is a link to safeguarding information from the NSPCC. It also contains very helpful information to make you aware of the dangers that young people may face. Please take a look it is very informative.

It includes some information about bullying and cyberbullying; child sexual exploitation; criminal exploitation and gangs; online abuse, child trafficking; sexual abuse; domestic abuse, emotional abuse, female genital mutilation, neglect, non-recent abuse and physical abuse.

<https://www.nspcc.org.uk/what-is-child-abuse/types-of-abuse/>

If anything you read rings true to you, please come and speak to either Mrs Greenfield, Mrs Holman, Mrs Menon, Mrs Sawyer or Ms Marku.

Music Extra-Curricular Timetable

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Lunchtime	Junior Choir Conference Room 13:50- 14:35	Junior Band IBO (SF1) 13:50-14:40	Jazz Band KHN (SF1) 13:25-14:15 GCSE/A-level support IBO (SF2) 13:25- 14:05	Senior Choir KHA (SF1) 13:25- 14:05 Theory IBO (SF2) 13:30-14:20	Orchestra IBO (SF1) 13:30-14:20
After school	String orchestra IBO (SF1) 15:45-16:30 Brass Ensemble (SF2) 15:45-16:15	Chamber groups IBO (SF1) 15:45-16:30

A brief description of musical activities:

String Orchestra: Open to all string players from grade 3 level and tackling classical repertoire.

Brass Ensemble: A visiting brass specialist from the Redbridge centre will be taking these, open to all brass players.

Junior Band: This ensemble is an excellent introduction to music at the school, available to all instruments and appropriate from novices up to roughly grade 3 equivalent standard.

Chamber groups: These are small ensembles which the music department will supervise and coach alongside proposed initiatives from students. I highly encourage anyone interested to speak to a member of the music department ahead of time to allow for planning.

Jazz Band: Mainly for years 10-13 instrumentalists, grade 4/5+ level - woodwind, brass, and rhythm section players (guitar, piano, bass, percussion) We play a range of swing, funk and pop tunes; encouraging learning to improvise confidently.

GCSE/A-level support: This is an ongoing class to aid any students taking the GCSE or A-level music course.

Senior Choir: A choir for all students in years 10-13, singing a wide variety of music from pop to jazz to classical. The Senior Choir performs at some of the school's traditional events – including the School Birthday coming up soon.

Junior Choir: A specialist vocal coach from the Redbridge Music Centre will be attending to lead this. It's an excellent opportunity for those in years 7-9 to attend regardless of prior experience.

Theory: These sessions provide a great boost in confidence for those who wish to understand the theoretical side of music not only to supplement music classes across all years, but also for aiding instrumental progress. Coaching will be based on ABRSM graded books, and will include anyone wishing to do their grade 5 theory exam, which is required for instrumental grade 6 and higher.

Orchestra: This is the main instrumental body of the school and is open to all relevant instruments of grade 4 equivalent standard or higher.

Get your day off to a good start with a healthy, tasty breakfast. Have more energy, less headaches/dizzy spells and be ready to learn. Check out the NHS website for quick and easy ideas.

<https://www.nhs.uk/live-well/eat-well/healthy-breakfasts-recipes/>

Strategies that can help with anxiety:

Breathe slowly and deeply.

You can count slowly to five as you breathe in, and then five as you breathe out. If this is too much, try starting with shorter counts. If it works gradually breathe out for one or two counts longer than you breathe in. This can help your body to relax.

Think of a safe and relaxing place in your mind.

It could be your bedroom, a grandparent's house, a favourite place in nature or somewhere you have been on holiday. Sometimes holding a memento of a relaxing place, like a seashell or pebble, can help.

Try using all five senses together.

Connecting with what you can see, touch, hear, smell and taste can bring you closer to the present moment and reduce the intensity of your anxiety. You might think about five things you can see, four things you can touch, three things you can hear, two things you can smell and one thing you can taste.

Try to do something that helps you to feel calmer.

This could be running, walking, listening to music, painting, drawing or colouring-in, writing in a journal, baking, watching a favourite film or reading a favourite book.

Remember that everyone is different, and that over time you will find the things that work best for you in these moments.

Anger Management Techniques

Relaxation

Not all anger is misplaced, and often it's a healthy, natural response to difficulties.

Simple relaxation tools, such as deep breathing and relaxing imagery, can help calm down angry feelings.

Some simple steps you can try:

- Breathe deeply, from your diaphragm; breathing from your chest won't relax you. Picture your breath coming up from your "gut."
- Slowly repeat a calm word or phrase such as "relax," "take it easy." Repeat it to yourself while breathing deeply.
- Use imagery; visualize a relaxing experience, from either your memory or your imagination.
- Nonstrenuous, slow yoga-like exercises can relax your muscles and make you feel much calmer.

Practice these techniques daily. Learn to use them automatically when you're in a tense situation.

Restructure your thoughts

When you're angry, your thinking can get very exaggerated and overly dramatic. Try replacing these thoughts with more rational ones. For instance, instead of telling yourself, "oh, it's awful, it's terrible, everything's ruined," tell yourself, "it's frustrating, and it's understandable that I'm upset about it, but it's not the end of the world and getting angry is not going to fix it anyhow" and may make me feel worse. Logic defeats anger, because anger, even when it's justified, can quickly become irrational. So use cold hard logic on yourself. Remind yourself that the world is "not out to get you," you're just experiencing some of the rough spots of daily life.

Problem Solving

Sometimes, our anger and frustration are caused by very real and inescapable problems in our lives. Not all anger is misplaced, and often it's a healthy, natural response to these difficulties.

Make a plan, and check your progress along the way. Resolve to give it your best, but also not to punish yourself if an answer doesn't come right away.

Continued./.....

Better Communication

Angry people tend to jump to—and act on—conclusions, and some of those conclusions can be very inaccurate. The first thing to do if you're in a heated discussion is slow down and think through your responses. Don't say the first thing that comes into your head, but slow down and think carefully about what you want to say. At the same time, listen carefully to what the other person is saying and take your time before answering. Try not to let your anger during a discussion spin out of control. Keeping your cool can keep the situation from becoming a disastrous one.

If you are finding things challenging, as we all do from time to time, do remember to check that you are including the 5 ways to well-being in your daily life, in whatever way you can. Remember the 5 ways to well-being are:

Connect (Talk and Listen, feel connected, be there)

Be Active (Do what you can: Enjoy what you do: Move your mood)

Take Notice (Remember the simple things that give you joy)

Keep Learning (Embrace new experience, see opportunities, surprise yourself)

Give (Your time, your words, your presence)

It is often helpful to talk through concerns or worries with family or a friend so do both reach out to others and be there for your friends and family should they need to talk to you. Sometimes talking through a worry can really help.

Sometimes it may be helpful for you or a friend to access support to access help outside of or in addition to family and/or friends. You can contact the school in several ways to do this and there are various people who can offer help and support.

CONFIDENTIALITY

If you speak to a member of school staff about a private matter this will usually remain confidential between you and that member of staff. If the member of staff thinks that it is a good idea to involve someone else such as another member of staff, an external agency or your parents they would talk to you about this and get your consent. However, all members of staff have a duty to pass on information to only the school Safeguarding Team if they had concerns about your own safety or that of another member of the school community. The Safeguarding Team is limited to Mrs Greenfield and Mrs Holman.

HOW TO ACCESS SUPPORT

Tootoot – this is a way of contacting the school anonymously. You can access Tootoot from the School Website and you would have been sent a login to your school email at the start of the year. You can use Tootoot to get help with problems that you are having at school or to report something you are worried about. There is a small selection of staff who will receive your message when it is sent and will endeavour to answer as soon as they can.

Form tutor – the first place you should go if you have any problems is to your form tutor. They will offer advice if they can and /or will direct you to the relevant person in the school who can help. Currently you may be able to speak to your tutor at the end of a Teams Meeting or by emailing into the relevant KS Administrator asking your Form Tutor to contact you (you would not need to give any details). You could also get a message to them through Tootoot but would need to give your name so that they would know who to contact.

Head of Year – form tutors usually work closely with Head of Year. You can also go directly to your Head of Year if you would prefer to do this.

Student Guidance Team – Mrs Holman and Ms Menon are available to speak to you if you have a problem, whether related to school or more personal and will guide you as to the best way to deal with the problem. They may offer to see you again themselves or advise you to see a school counsellor.

School Counsellor – Feeling overwhelmed? Scared because your parents are splitting up? Feel like you don't fit in? Sometimes it's just not possible to sort through tough times alone. Problems can build up and you may lose sleep, find you can't concentrate on school work/homework, or even become depressed. When you need to talk to someone, your school counsellor can be a great person to help you through your bad times. They will listen and help. They'll take your problem seriously and work with you to find a good solution. School counsellors are trained to help with most issues. Please speak to your Form Tutor or other member of staff or enquire via Tootoot. Speaking to a counsellor is informal, just like a chat.

Counselling is very informal, like having a chat and the Counsellors may ask questions or give advice. The sessions are about you and is your time to speak about what is worrying you.

The Body Scan

Mindfully scanning through the body, starts with breathing into the toes and feet, working all the way up the legs into the abdomen, through the belly and upper torso, moving to the hands and arms, the shoulders and neck, then into the face and back of the head, and finally ends at the crown. Lying down meditation focuses attention systematically on the whole body. Widening the scope of awareness to include every part of our physical being, this practice reminds us that we are more than simply residents of our own head.

It can be especially recuperative if we allow ourselves to rest in the awareness of being completely relaxed and supported for 10 – 20 minutes each day. A body scan carried out when we are fully awake can revitalise our sense of being alive and present in the moment. Alternatively, our intention may be to fall asleep as we go about deeply relaxing each body part in turn while focusing on breathing into and letting go of tensions that have accumulated during the day.

TRY THIS:

Beditation

1. Lie down on your back in a safe space where you won't be disturbed.
2. Cover yourself with a blanket to keep warm. Or settle down in your bed to sleep.
3. Allow your eyes to close.
4. Place your hands on your belly and gently settle your attention on the rising and falling of your diaphragm as you breath in and out.
5. Take a few moments to feel your whole body lying there, register where you notice the points of contact with the mat or the bed.
6. Take an intentional breath in & imagine the vitality of the inhalation travelling all the way down to into your toes and feet. As you exhale, notice any sensations you feel there.
7. When you are ready to leave the toes and feet, take a deeper breath in and allow any tension or discomfort you find to dissolve in awareness as you exhale and move your attention up into the lower legs and knees.
8. Continue to move up through the rest of your body. If you experience any discomfort such as cramp, it's best to release the tension by moving or massaging away the discomfort before continuing with the scan.
9. The important point is to allow yourself to fully relax, and to drift into sleep as your body pulls you in that direction.
10. If you wish to remain awake, try doing the body scan on a yoga mat with your eyes open during the day.

Everyday Mindfulness

Mindfulness Based Stress Reduction or MBSR is based on the principle of bringing full awareness to the present moment. This detached attitude of mind helps us recognise the physical symptoms of stress and uses focus on the breath to reduce the anxiety caused by constant rumination and worry.

Insight into our habitual thought patterns brings new understanding and increases our ability to focus our attention where it is needed most. The clarity of mind that comes with regular practice explains the renewed interest in this ancient skill, at a time when there is much each of us needs to do to look after our health, the health of others, and protect the biosphere that is our beautiful planet.

A series of calming, guided meditations from the Oxford Mindfulness Centre can be accessed online free of charge. Their website also includes a helpful information section written with young people in mind.

www.oxfordmindfulness.org

TRY THIS:

Being in the present moment

Set aside 10 minutes after a busy day at school. Find a place to sit comfortably where you will not be disturbed. Lower your gaze or let your eyes close. Rest your hands on your lap, palms upwards or fold your hands together. Breathing through your nose, notice where you feel the sensations of inhalation and exhalation most vividly.

Your thinking mind will pull for your attention, when it does, consciously bring your awareness back to the physical sensations of sitting and breathing. Remain upright, so you stay awake. Adjust your posture from time to time if you feel uncomfortable. Imagine you are a mountain.

Mindful Walking

Walking is something we do every day without stopping to give it a second thought. Given the option, most of us would rather take a lift than walk to the shops. But this simple form of exercise has many stress relieving benefits.

Shirin Yoku or forest bathing is a form of meditative walking that is very popular in Japan. Designed to help people take time away from their screens, Shirin Yoku trails are chosen for their beauty and tranquillity. Forest bathing is known to improve immune function and lowers anxiety.

Mindful walking has been scientifically proven to reduce the harmful physical effects of stress and increase peace of mind. It can be practised outdoors anywhere you feel safe enough to walk with greater awareness.

The steps that follow describe how to perform mindful walking:

Preparation for mindful walking:

- Find somewhere safe to walk where you will not be disturbed: your garden, a city park, country lane, or a busy street – are all equally good.
- Wear comfortable clothing and shoes for walking.
- Stand still and become aware of how you feel.
- Consider your posture, the weight of your body, feet in your shoes, and your muscles as you balance.

Mindful walking instructions:

- Take a few deep breaths and slowly bring your awareness into the present.
- As you begin walking notice how your feet feel when they make contact with the ground.
- Slow down and notice the sights & sounds around you.
- Deepen your breathing if it feels comfortable.
- When your mind drifts, gently guide your thoughts back to the sensations of walking and breathing.
- Continue walking for as long as you feel safe and comfortable.

Mindful walking is free and doesn't require any specialist equipment. Half-term may provide the perfect moment for you to try this form of moving meditation for yourself.

LGBTQ+

Dear Students,

Pride is a movement which celebrates diversity as well as protesting against discrimination and violence as whilst the rights of the LGBTQ+ community have come a long way, there is still not full equality. There is plenty of information online about the history of the development of the rights for the LGBTQ+ community available online, for example –

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/40459213>

Remember, Pride is all about inclusivity and diversity. The priority is the promotion of equality and creating a community and a safe space for people to be who they are.

If you, or anyone you know, has any questions about this or feel that they need some support then you can speak to a trusted adult at school such as your Head of Year or Form Tutor. Alternatively, the following websites might be of use –

Dear Students

Woodford County High School subscribes to Tootoot, this is an online reporting platform and app for students. We are aware that there may be times when you may not feel comfortable to speak to someone face-to-face about your concerns, or may be concerned about being identified or potentially making matters worse.

With Tootoot, you are able to safely and anonymously report your concerns and worries to mentors (WCHS safeguarding and pastoral team), so use this as a first step to resolving your concerns. Although anonymous please be aware that in the event of a serious safeguarding issue, (i.e. where a student is in danger of imminent harm) it would be possible for the Designated Safeguarding Leads to gain access to identify the student.

Tootoot is accessible anywhere, anytime and on any internet-enabled device, if there is something that is concerning you, or making you feel unsafe (whether an issue personal to you or a wider concern about others in school) you can use this platform to raise your concern. School should be a safe place where you can grow in confidence and learn, no one should ever be bullied. When reporting you will also be able to attach supporting evidence, such as images, screenshots or documents etc.

Ms Hasler and Mrs Easton, as well as the school's Student Guidance Officer Mrs Holman and Assistant Student Guidance Officer Mrs Menon, will be happy to discuss any concerns you may have in person.

Please note that Tootoot should not be used for day to day school-related questions, please speak to your form tutor, teachers or Key Stage Administrator for these. You are also able to contact your teachers via email who will get back to you during a school day.

Keep an eye out for an email from Tootoot with your login details, which will be sent out via the Tootoot system. Your accounts are linked to your school email therefore should you forget your details going forward, you will always be able to use the "Forgotten your login/password?" feature on the home page to receive a password reset link.

Regards

Ilford Photographic Ltd

Are you aged between 16–21?
Are you interested in storytelling and film photography?
Are you from Redbridge?
Are you free 1–5 August, 10am–4pm?
...we would love to hear from you!

The National Portrait Gallery and Redbridge Museum have teamed up to tell the stories of people associated with the world-famous photographic company, Ilford Photographic Ltd.

Part of People Powered, a project to discover the people who have made a significant impact as part of some of the UK's important industries.

What you get

- Mentorship from influential photographer Eddie Otchere, best known for his portraits of Biggie Smalls, So Solid Crew, Est'elle, Andre 3000 and more.
- Practical experience in shooting and processing film photography.
- Training in collecting oral histories.
- A social space.
- Voucher to acknowledge your time.
- Enhance your CV.
- Lunch will be provided.

What you'll do

- Take your own photos.
- Process your own film.
- Meet and interview key people.
- Create new artwork for a display.
- Use archives to research new stories.
- Be part of an exhibition at Redbridge Museum and NPG online.

Who you are

- Aged 16–21.
- Connected to Redbridge.
- Open-minded and enthusiastic.
- Ready to try something new and challenge yourself.
- Enjoy meeting new people and being part of a team.
- Committed to the programme.
- Don't need prior qualifications.

How to apply

Email a short piece about you, why you are interested in the project and how you meet the 'who you are' section.

Deadline: 20 May, 9am
