Medical Room during Ramadan

Whenever a student attends the medical room they will be asked about their symptoms and this will inform the medical room staff about how to proceed.

Please do not be concerned about attending the medical room if you are fasting. We will ask you about your symptoms as usual but you will not be required to break your fast. We will enquire if you are fasting so that we can take this into account, in deciding the best advice to give you. For example, we will first try treatments that will not break your fast i.e. if a headache a cold compress or heat pack, if feeling light headed, resting for a short while before returning to class.

If we are recommending a treatment that would involve breaking your fast, we would be sure to give the option of consulting with your parents first as many students prefer to do this.

Illness can happen at any time so we wanted you to know that we recognise, respect and support the fact that students have different requirements according to their religious practices.

Regards

Mrs Kaye and Mrs Mann

Prayer Room during Ramadan

Students are reminded that we have spaces set aside for lunchtime prayer. In the main building the Spirituality Space is on the top floor.

In the Centenary Centre Lab 1 is available.
